Broker's comment

Xegama is a nostalgic, strongly built Staysails Schooner which is suitable for a long voyage, by two German Naval Architects. The boat is built with PEL tube as spacer material between the outer and inner laminate, this causes great stiff and torsional stability, the boat is equipped for 5 people, and where you feel comfortable when you want to short trips or the great long distance. The boat is well cared for and looked after and updated, no way has been said (it can be turned).
